APRIL 1971

ANNUAL TORONTO DINNER

A happy trio at the Toronto dinner — John S. Guest, Alan Jarvis, Association President, and E. V. B. 'Ted' Pilgrim.

The Annual Dinner of the Ridley College Association was held at the Park Plaza Hotel, Toronto, on last 12 March, a Friday. It was arranged by Tony Kemp and his committee, and the events of the evening passed off smoothly and enjoyably — pre-gathering, dinner, speeches, raffle, the C.B.C. movie STROKE and post-gathering.

Allan Jarvis, the President of the Association, presided. Ted Pilgrim spoke briefly. Tony Cassels introduced the speaker, Dr. A. B. B. Moore, Moderator of the United Church of Canada and past-President of Victoria College, Toronto. Dr. Moore's address was an outstanding combination of the light touch and thought-provoking ideas, delivered as only a past-master at public-speaking can. He left with his audience a re-assessment of the place of the independent school in the educational system of Canada and a firm reminder that from them is expected leadership in original thinking combined with the duty of close-association with the thinking and problems of other schools and students. Bob Matthews offered sincere thanks to Dr. Moore for his invaluable contribution to the out-look of all Ridleians.

There were 117 men in attendance, including representatives from U.C.C., T.C.S., S.A.C., Lakefield and five or six fathers of present boys.

At the Toronto dinner — David M. Duncan (37), D. Drew Ogilvie (68), G. C. 'Bud' Brown (36) and Terry Cronyn (21).

Branch Meetings

ARGENTINA

While Terry Cronyn was in Buenos Aires, Argentina, he contacted our Old Ridleyans there and the result was a luncheon in Claridges Hotel, Buenos Aires, on 18 December, 1970. Attending were: Jose E. board. Likewise, these Old Boys are in good form and send greetings.

EDMONTON BRANCH

A very large evening cocktail party, generously hosted by Mr. A. Hoadley Mitchell, our Edmonton member of the Board of Governors, was held at the Mayfair Golf and Country Club on Friday evening the 8th of January. Over sixty enthusiastic Old Boys and Parents were in attendance, including the Headmaster and Sam Heaman. After the refreshments, the new School movies, 'The Ridley Road' and 'Stroke' were shown to a very appreciative audience. Robert L. Brintnell, our Branch Chairman, was responsible for the arrangements that resulted in such a large turnout.

LOS ANGELES BRANCH

A small but enthusiastic group of Los Angeles Old Boys met for dinner at the Proud Bird Restaurant on the evening of Thursday 14 January under the chairmanship of Allistair M. MacIver-Campbell. Sam Heaman represented the School and after some difficulties with the projector (his fault) showed the two new movies 'Stroke' and 'The Ridley Road'. Those attending were: Dr. Stanley G. Christie (46), W. James Franks (45), William C. Irwin (49), Allistair M. MacIver-Campbell (30), John E. R. McDougall (30) and Bruce M. Schmul (31).

MONTREAL BRANCH

Arrangements were made by John H. Wilmot (61), the Branch Chairman, for the Montreal branch dinner to be held at the Atlantic Provinces Pavilion Restaurant on Thursday 4 March. However, due to the worst snowstorm of the year that dumped 18 1/2 inches of snow on the city the meeting had to be cancelled. It is now re-scheduled for Thursday 29 April.

OTTAWA BRANCH

The Ottawa branch meeting this year was held at the home of the Chairman, T. Christie Arnold. The result was a very pleasant evening that was enjoyed by all. The Headmaster and Sam Heaman arrived from snow-blanketed Montreal on time and found that Ottawa had its full share as well. During the evening 'The Ridley Road' and 'Stroke' movies were shown and elicited approval from all. Attending the meeting were: Dr. Jack C. Arnell (34), T. Christie Arnold (45), The Rev'd. Kenneth A. Coleman (39), Douglas A. Conway (66), Maj. Robert C. Graves (41), Arthur J. Hills (96), Roy W. Lewis (39), Gordon W. Mills (64), Major Robin Morris (47), Clare L. Muir (32), Dr. Peter N. Mrs. T. C. Arnold and Arthur J. Hills (96), and in his 93rd year, at the Ottawa meeting.

SAN FRANCISCO BRANCH

Due to the generosity of Kenneth G. Ramsey, the San Francisco meeting was held in the offices of the Canadian Consulate in the Maritime Plaza Building. Paul Dixon took over on short notice as Branch Chairman and was responsible for all the arrangements that resulted in a successful gathering. Sam Heaman was present representing the School and 'The Ridley Road' and 'Stroke' movies were screened for the group. The following attended: Craig P. Cudlip (57) and Miss Sharon Rinehart, Anthony P. Day (53), Paul F. and Mary Dixon (38), Richard S. and Margo Hill (43), Paul and Laurie Knier (65), R. Wallace and Mary Lawson (42), Guy R. McNett (65), Jamie F. and Janet McNett (61), Kenneth G. and Gerda Ramsay (38) and E. Paul and Jane Rigby (59).

VANCOUVER BRANCH

Tuesday 12 January was a cold night in Vancouver and there was a foot of snow on the ground. However, a good turnout from the Branch arrived for dinner at the Vancouver Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club. Frank W. Hillock, the new Chairman, organized the meeting and presided over it. Ted Pilgrim and Sam Heaman were in attendance from the School and everyone enjoyed the new movies 'The Ridley Road' and 'Stroke'. In attendance were: T. J. Todd Caine (72), James A. At the Ottawa meeting — Robert S. Wilkinson (53), Major Robin Morris (47) and Lt.-Cmdr. Allen D. Taylor (46).

RIDLEY'S FUTURE

Plans Being Prepared

Detailed long-range planning for Ridley's future is nearing completion, and the results will be announced soon. Months of intensive study have produced a Master Development Plan and proposals for meeting the economic needs of the School for the coming decade and longer. The recommendations are now being studied by the Board of Governors.

"Ridley is at the crossroads," says S. M. 'Mac' Irwin, Chairman of the Financial Support Committee. "The School is faced with new construction and renovation at a time when operating costs are climbing much more rapidly than revenue. Temporary, stop-gap solutions are no longer good enough. The situation calls for boldness. We are endeavouring to develop a plan that will serve Ridley well for some years to come."

Strong leadership is being recruited from every section of the Ridley constituency throughout Canada, the United States and beyond for a programme to be launched next fall.

"This will be both imaginative and exciting in respect to future planning for an Independent School in this country," Mr. Irwin emphasized.

Music at Ridley

It is hard to lay down a set of rules which say "this is what school music should be". Much depends on the way of life in a school and also on the musical philosophy of the resident music staff.

At Ridley we do not believe in the idea that every child is a potential musician and therefore we do not attempt to conduct instrumental lessons in class time. The Upper School music courses are academic and use seven periods per week. Three of these are devoted to the history of music, three to harmony and counterpoint and one to ear training. History of music takes in the study of musical forms, instrumentation, the lives of composers and the social, economic and political situation in which a composer operates. Harmony and counterpoint is basically a study of the principals of composition. Here the boys learn to write simple music. Hopefully this develops a creative facility but it also helps to understand just what a composer is doing when he produces a certain type of sound. Ear training develops the ability to write down in music notation sounds that are heard and eventually the ability to mentally hear what one is writing. All the boys are encouraged to take private lessons on an instrument.

In the boarding school situation which we have there are many barriers to overcome. A major one is that musical development requires sensitivity. The average student is in the position of continually playing a role and rarely, if ever, shows his true feelings. A composer literally bares his soul and it is hard for a boy to face the emotional content of music and say "that is beautiful". The feeling in the music very often matches exactly what a boy himself is feeling but he is afraid to look at it openly. He may be experiencing an emotion that he is unable to describe verbally and who can he trust to understand and respect his feelings? Whom can he talk to about it? In my view this is the biggest single stumbling block for music in this place.

The block is reinforced by the fact that a forty minute period is too short. The student arrives late from a test, he is worried about that question he had difficulty with and he is more worried by the fact that an essay due next period is nowhere near completion. How then can he relax into the beauty of music? The answer is that the pressure on the student should be relieved or at least realigned so that his mind can operate freely.

The problem with our instrumental programme is that the boys do not get sufficient time to practice. Any player needs a good practice session each day if he is to make progress. Twenty five minutes is useless save for the very beginner and many boys do not even manage to get that. The point is that study of an instrument is a severe discipline in itself. It is an individual effort which trains one to be self critical and also efficient in using time to the best advantage. We need to be able to allow boys to use study time for this purpose, because this is a legitimate study.

The Chapel Choir is the most developed part of musical performance at Ridley. Apart from sectional practices the choir rehearses for one hour per week. It is hardly sufficient and with strict routine of Ridley life it is hard to see how any more time can be gained.

At Lower School the sixth and seventh forms each have two periods of music per week. The time is devoted to listening and to learning the elements of music reading using Carl Orff percussion instruments. In grades eight and nine music functions as part of the Music, Art and Drama option. These are half year courses which function like those in the earlier grades but at a more technical level.

Throughout the school we have a total of twenty five piano students and eight brass students. Twenty one boys take guitar lessons. The figures do not include boys who have given up taking lessons during the year because of lack of practice time. Our efforts to establish a worthwhile brass ensemble have also been in vain because of the lack of time.

I did not intend this article to be a list of complaints. Our aim is to teach music by allowing a boy to experience it by listening, writing and playing. It is a liberal art and it needs a liberal environment in which to flourish. My deepest concern is that music cannot develop further at Ridley until the regimentation inherent in the way of life here is changed. If a boy is non-athletic it must be recognized that, if he is musically inclined, an afternoon of piano practice is of greater benefit to him. This is not to say that he should not take part in games — he must keep fit — but . . .

Music is a stern academic discipline within its own confines. It is almost impossible to apply a marking scheme to something which is subjective.

For the future I can also say that I would like to see more updating of our classroom methods. More care in seeing that a class really functions as a close knit group. More attention to creating a classroom atmosphere in which music becomes a rich experience. For this we need fairly sophisticated visual aids. In the area of composition I would like to hope that we will be able to purchase high quality recording equipment so that we can explore the areas of experimental music. All these things then, plus more time for a boy to do his own musical thing, and of course, trust from others that what he is doing is valid.

Ridley Hockey - 1971

Another hockey season has passed into history, one which has had more than its share of great expectations and unexpected defeats.

In all, 100 boys participated in the Upper School hockey programme at this past season. The Junior League made up of 40 boys in Grades 10 and 11 played intramurally as four teams and combined into a Junior League All Star team to play inter-school matches. The League All-Stars played six games and the experience gained by some of the younger players was very valuable. The League was capably handled by Mr. John Inglis assisted by Messrs. Jack Wilson, Eugene McBride and Nat Caters.

A senior group of 18 boys in Grades 12 and 13 played as a group for the season. They formed a team which represented the School in six games. In charge of this group were Messrs. Bob Stanley, David Wilson and David Mackey.

The Under 16 Team coached by Mr. Maurice Cooke and Mr. Ken Chipman played a total of twelve games during the season, winning six, tying two, and losing four. This team no doubt will produce several fine prospects for next years first team.

The Ridley Second Team completed its second successive year undefeated. This is no small feat when you consider the calibre of some of the teams they were matched against. Mr. Brian Armstrong has done an outstanding job with the material at hand and in some cases ends up losing his best players to the first team, which happened this year, but still carries on with a successful tradition.

The First Team, after an impressive start, tailed off at the end of the year. The Firsts compiled an overall record of 10 wins, 1 tie and 3 losses. Two of the losses to Upper Canada and Lakefield, put the team out of the running for the I.S.A.A. Championship. The loss to Lakefield marked the first time that the Ridley First Team had lost a game in Independent School Athletic Association competition since the 1966-1967 season.

The record was as follows:—

- 1st vs Nichols Alumni, won 4-2
- 1st vs Wilkinson Swords, won 5-4
- 1st vs 50 Club, won 5-4
- 1st vs Nichols School, won 4-2
- 1st vs Appleby, won 7-2
- 1st vs Nichols Alumni, won 3-0
- 1st vs S.A.C., won 6-1
- 1st vs Southmount H.S. tie 4-4
- 1st vs T.C.S., won 4-2
- 1st vs Wilkinson Swords, lost 6-2
- 1st vs Lakefield, lost 5-4
- 1st vs Nichols School, won 4-2
- 1st vs Appleby, won 8-1
- 1st vs Upper Canada, lost 4-2

The team will sorely miss Rounthwaite and Tredway, Captain and Assistant Captain respectively, next year. Ian has been on the team for four years and Bill for three. Williams I, Upjohn ma., Curry ma., and Burn are also completing their last year at Ridley and contributed much to the success of the team. The nucleus for next year's team will come from Randall, Iggulden, MacKay, Dixon, Christie ma., McIntosh ma., Slemmon ma., Brunton and Gilroy ma. Szczucinski also played extremely well after being brought up from the Second Team late in the season.

The overall picture of Ridley Hockey is bright and with the excellent coaching at all levels of the sport there is no lack of talent to replace those who are leaving.

Lower School Notes

Another vacation has begun; another term completed. Once more the halls are silent, the crashing of overturning beds in the dorms are stilled, and the piercing bell has been turned off. It hardly seems possible, as one surveys the mounds of snow outside, that spring will be upon us in a few weeks, and that the sounds of bat against ball will soon ring across the campus.

As always, the winter term has been interesting and busy, if at times hectic. With six hockey, two basketball, swimming, squash and gym squads all playing at the same time, it seems incredible that no hockey team arrived somewhere in bathing trunks.

The rink was the busiest spot in the school this term. Well over a hundred Lower School boys were actively engaged in hockey, and many deserve credit for braving wind, rain and snowdrifts that beset the outdoor rink this term. It was unfortunate that the outdoor rink was out of action so much because of the elements, and this state does emphasize the need to have the outdoor rink covered so that it can be fully utilized.

The first team was surprisingly successful this year, winning most of its matches. In fact the team was victorious in both its matches with the Upper Canada College Under 15's, the first time this has happened for many years. Lampert, Schram and Lawson all played very well, and Mr. Coy also will have three boys returning next year. Mr. Dawson's seconds showed well, especially against Nichols when they came from behind to score two goals in the final minutes of the match. Travis, Webster II and Lytle were the leaders.

The thirds and fourths were coached by Mr. Rice and they both had winning seasons. The thirds were led by Irani and Witzel who scored most of the goals, and by Stein mi., who was left to provide most of the defence in goal.

The fourths were probably the most entertaining team in the school. They scored a lot of goals and ignored defence completely so that they were often hard pressed to win. The midgets, DeRose, Prudhomme and Kyle, never stopped skating and impressed all with their smooth playmaking and passing.

The Senior League All Stars had one match against Lakefield, and lost. McElheny proved to be the team's highest scorer with one goal. The goalie, McGuire was heard to say after the game, "Not bad. They only hit me ten times."

The Junior League Wallabies under the leaping tutelage of Messrs. Tuckfield and Smy lost its three games, including one 19-0. The coaches have requested that this be the last year we schedule the fifths against Esposito, Orr and the Bruins.

Mr. Cosgrove's basketball team had its troubles this year. It is difficult to find comparative opposition. The distinct dearth of seven footers seemed to be the coach's main complaint. Kingston, who made up in desire what he lacked in height, led his team to its two victories. De Marinis, Gicas and Anthony also had successful seasons. The Juniors were victorious in their only match against UCC.

The lack of numbers on the swimming team made it difficult for Mr. McDougall to arrange many meets. The three that were held resulted in one victory.

Squash continued its climb in popularity and the courts were continually in use this year. A number of meets were held with the school winning its fair share. Webster I showed the greatest improvement and he also won the Senior Championship. Paterson mi. was the class of a promising group of younger players.

The Gym Squad once more highlighted the Lower School section of the Assault-at-Arms. Lt-Col. Iggulden, with help from Mr. Loat, instructed the boys. Pos mi. gave an excellent performance and deservedly received the Macia Trophy as the best gymnast. His performance on the Pommel Horse was better than anyone's in the Upper School. Mackenzie I was the runner up, and he showed remarkable progress in this his first year of gymnastics.

On top of the numerous athletic activities, there were numerous trips and clubs being organized. The ninth form visited the Ford plant in Oakville. A group toured the Canada Furnace Ltd. and saw a blast furnace in operation. Ski trips remained a popular activity and we entered a team in the I.S.A.A. ski meet in Collingwood. It should also be noted that only one boy broke his leg this year.

The Photography Club was operating in full force. Tucker ma. has been doing a good if messy job in the darkroom. The Hobby Club has set up headquarters in the Leonard House basement.

Our Saturday evening program has resulted in a wide variety of entertainment. Representatives from Pollution Probe addressed the boys on environmental problems. Two South African cricketers living in St. Catharines talked about the problems of Apartheid. Mr. Orme gave an informative demonstration of Karate.

The last two years have seen the beginning of an outdoor group in the Lower School. A hike was held early in the year, and a trip was taken to the Huntsville area. A parent, Mr. R. Bruce Craik, kindly offered us the use of his newly acquired Grandview Inn. Fifteen boys, with Mr. Craik and Messrs. Smy, Loat and the Cosgroves headed for the north. Included in the group were some from as far away as Bermuda and Nigeria.

Mr. Smy, who missed his rendezvous with the others, caused a great deal of consternation as he put his trailer into the ditch attempting the hazardous entrance into the Craik's abode. (It should be noted that no one else ran into the same difficulty.) The rest of that evening was spent getting Mr. Smy out of various snowbanks he continually put his car and/or the trailer.

Saturday was spent skidooing, walking, shovelling snow off roofs, making plans for unsuccessful sneak attacks on the masters, tobogganning, and getting Mr. Smy out of the snowbank into which he had been pushed by Black during a speedy toboggan run. A number of boys were also taught about the sanitary benefits of washing (or having washed) their faces in snow. Oakes made the fastest run without benefit of sled when he slid down a steep hill on the seat of his pants while escaping from Mr. Cosgrove.

In all, it was a successful week-end, and we sincerely thank Mr. Craik for his hospitality. This program which is still in its infancy, is very worthwhile. It is my opinion that it should be expanded in the future. It would certainly be nice if the Lower School could acquire some land within an hour's drive so that more week-end trips could be arranged, and activities prepared for those people who seldom go out on weekends.

Gymnastics - 1971

Rings, ropes and giants sums up in three words gymnastics at Ridley for 1970-71.

Gymnastics has come a long way in the past few years at Ridley and this year was probably the climax. Our coach, Lt.-Col. A. G. Iggulden, has been awaiting the introduction of two pieces of gym apparatus for over 20 years and this year he was rewarded with rings and climbing ropes.

The squad has generally benefitted greatly from these pieces of apparatus. But we needed them for SOSSA meets (which we never competed in because the meet was held during our Easter holidays). Everybody likes to swing on ropes and perform on rings, but this was the first year since the twenties that the gym squad has been able to take advantage of them.

At the beginning of this season, we were informed that we would have a meet against T.C.S. and also be involved in SOSSA gymnastics. This gave us a lot of incentive and as a result, we learned a lot of new skills. Shortly after the Christmas holidays a few of us were trying such routines as giants on the high-bar, iron crosses on the rings and other difficult routines never tried before by the majority of the squad. We were "getting up" for the meet against T.C.S. It came and was a success in all areas. We were defeated by T.C.S. by a slim margin of less than 10 points out of over 200 and won the high bar and pommel horse events.

The Cap's Cup competition this year was won by Clarkson closely followed by Wahn. This competition also included the test for gym colours which this year were awarded to 8 out of 10 boys who competed. There were 5 old colours: Clarkson, Wahn, Gamble, Kenny and Holliday; plus three new colours: Whitside, Craik and Willmot. Fraser and McKenzie turned in excellent performances and will, if they keep up the good work, obtain their colours next year.

Three days following the colours parade was the night of the annual Assault-at-Arms which once again, thanks to the efficiency and patience of Lt.-Col. A. G. Iggulden, was a success. It was a success for the Upper School gym squad simply because of good organization. The Lower School gym squad was again, this year, trying out individually for their colours. As a result they put on a splendid display. The Macia cup was won by Pos mi., who performed well on all pieces of apparatus.

Contrary to what was expected, the Band display was quite successful this year. Not only was the display itself performed well but the songs were a better quality. "Georgie Girl" and "When The Saints Come Marching In" was followed by the oldies but goodies with a short interruption for a modern tune. Wright played an excellent drum solo while the Band came in on a piece from "Santana". The grand finale, O Canada was (for once in a long time) played well.

In every aspect, the Assault was a success and all tribute must go to Lt.-Col. Iggulden who made it possible.

Gymnastics at Ridley has ended for another season and unfortunately we are losing two fine gymnasts. Guy Clarkson (Captain) is going to University where he hopes to continue his gymnastics and Gordon Wahn (Vice-Captain) is leaving Ridley to attend a high school in Toronto. Our best wishes go with them.

Squash - 1971

The boom in Squash-racquets continued across Canada during the 1970-1971 season. Naturally, with more courts and more players, the standard of play gets better and better. Four major championships — the United States Singles, the Canadian Singles, the United States Junior and the Canadian Junior Championship were all won by Canadian players in 1971.

At Ridley, while we cannot claim any champions, Squash was as popular as ever. Fourteen matches were played against schools, junior clubs teams and a few senior clubs. The result, won ten and lost four, was very encouraging. Twenty boys represented the School in match play during the season and gained valuable experience for the future.

Upper Canada College, with a very strong team (including the Ontario Junior Champion), won the Inter-School Tournament played at York University. Play produced a good number of 3-2 matches and the tournament was keenly contested between Appleby, Trinity, Upper Canada and Ridley.

Mitchell (Edmonton) set a fine example as this year's Captain of Squash, and particularly pleasing was his winning the 'Sportsmanship' trophy at the conclusion of the Appleby Junior Team Invitation Championship.

The first team included the following boys: Mitchell (Captain), Cowperthwaite, Frederick, Upjohn mi., Skaab, Orr ma. and Bennett.

Basketball Report - 1971

The Ridley 1st team concluded their season with a Won-3, Lost-6, record. The very capable Stratton assumed the role of Captain and in his last year (we will miss him) was the team spark-plug. Mr. John Silver came out of a short retirement to do a terrific job in coaching the last four games of the schedule.

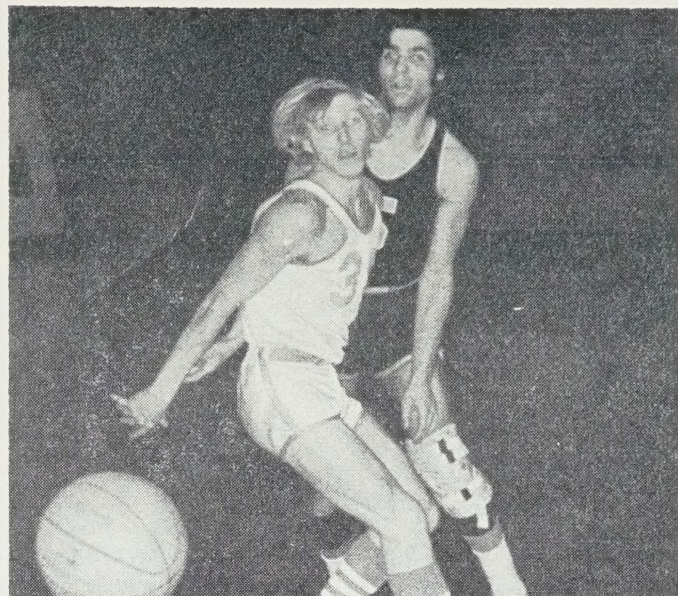

For the first time, a Ridley band of eight young, enthusiastic players entered the unior S.O.S.S.A. Zone 4 Basketball League. Results: Won-4, Lost-4. Christie mi. and Doolittle ma., did yeoman service as co-coaches. The final score is what counts and we lost 4, stubbornly but graciously. Dr. Tony Knowles assumed Coaching duties for the first time. His team showed a great deal of desire but terminated the season with a Won-3, Lost-6 record. Co-captains, Ritchie and Sabia did fine jobs as leaders both on and off the floor.

Another neophyte coach, our Chaplain Jack Rose, had a rough beginning and the team due to lack of experience terminated the season with a Won-1, Lost-5 record. The Captain, Powell ma., led the team to the best of his ability.

A Basketball House League was formed with the remainder of the boys and many games showed good form and enthusiasm.

Congratulations to all of the boys who did their best at all times, and extra special thanks to Mr. Jack Wilson who acted as an efficient organizer and to Tucker and McFarlane for their many hours of blowing the whistle twice a week for four different teams.

Last but not least to the unsung hero who conscientiously did an outstanding job behind the scene for literally three teams — Small, the manager.

Christie mi. guarding the opposition.

A vote of thanks to my son, Scott, who did a tremendous job as back-up man on several occasions, with many tedious jobs with the under 17's and to all the timers who controlled the hands of destiny at the Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday home games.

So — until next season, we remind the Old Boy cage-men — as a parallel to life — keep your head up when dribbling and concentrate on that basket to "achieve your goal — whatever it may be."

Yours for a new court.

TERRY GUEST

Maybe It's Catching

In 1903 John S. H. Guest emigrated from England to Canada to join the staff of Upper Canada College. Shortly after his arrival he was appointed the first Headmaster of the new U.C.C. "Prep" (just four years, incidentally, after the establishment of the Lower School at Ridley College). In 1971 John S. H. Guest or "Gimper", as he was then known, founded Appleby School in Oakville. One of the first boys to attend the new school was E. V. (Ted) Brown who, after graduating from Appleby and McGill and various other experiences, returned to Appleby as a Master in the '20's. In 1932 Ted was appointed Head of the Lower School at Ridley, and in 1933 John S. Guest, having graduated from Appleby and University of Toronto, joined the staff of the Lower School, resigning in December of 1942.

In 1956 John S. returned to academic life as Ted Brown's successor as Headmaster of the Lower School. In the meantime, his son, John T. M. Guest (Terry), had entered the lowest form at Ridley in 1949. After graduation in 1959, Terry proceeded to Bishop's University and from there went to Bishop's College School, first as a Duty Master until he obtained his B.A., then as a regular Master, being promoted to Housemaster of Glass House in 1967. During his years at B.C.S. he obtained his Quebec Certification and the necessary qualifications for his Master of Education degree at Bishop's University. The degree awaits his thesis which, we understand — and this is hardly surprising — will be related to Education in Independent Schools in Canada.

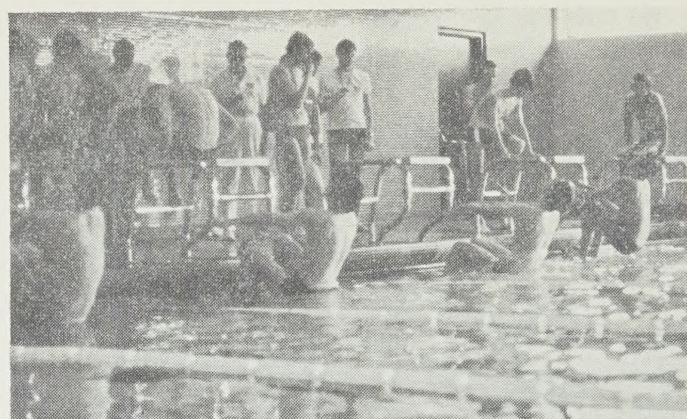

Last September Terry joined the staff of Lakefield College School (also known to many as "The Grove"), and on February 20th it was announced that he had been appointed as the Headmaster-Elect of Lakefield to succeed Mr. J. E. Matthews who is leaving Lakefield this June to become the Headmaster of Pacific College, a new senior international school to be established on the west coast. Terry, thus, is the third generation Headmaster in a family that seems to have become deeply involved in the independent school scene in Canada.

Swimming - 1971

The First Swimming Team, coached by Mr. Staples, had a very satisfactory season, winning four of seven Meets; the Second Team, under Mr. Youngson and Mr. Davis, won five of the six

Meets, defeating DeVeaux twice, UCC twice, TCS once, and losing only to SAC. The Firsts were successful against De Veaux in home-and-home Meets, and against SAC and UCC at Ridley, losing in Toronto to UCC in the return Meet; TCS defeated the Firsts at Port Hope.

In the major Meet of the year, the I.S.A.A. Meet held at York University, UCC proved too strong for the opposition, winning the Don Maskell Trophy with a total of 72 points; Ridley, in spite of the previous defeat by TCS, managed to emerge in the second place with 44 points; TCS placed third with 35 and SAC fourth with 21. All the Ridley swimmers performed creditably; special mention should be made of Lowry ma's fine win in the 100 metres free style and of Verity's second place finish in both the 100 metres individual medley and the 50 metre butterfly; Dorland did well, with a second in the 50 metres free style and a fourth in the 100 metres free style. Our relay team placed a very close second to UCC in the final event, the 200 metres free style relay. Our Junior relay team finished second in an exhibition event, close behind SAC. The First Team relay was composed of Lowry ma., Rand, Inch and Dorland; the Junior relay consisted of Nisbet, Gould mi., Ron Kavanagh mi., and Thompson. For the past two years the I.S.A.A. Meet has been held at York University, over metric distances; none of the new records are presently held by Ridley, but in the old programme, swum in yards, Ridley holds six of the nine records.

Members of the First Team were: Love and Verity (Co-Captains), Inch, Lyttle, Lowry ma., Rand, Vermeeren, Dorland, Britchford, Danby, Kopf and McOuat; most of these swimmers will be leaving Ridley this year, so we shall have a difficult task to train a strong team next year. However, some of the Second Team boys will no doubt fill the gaps; strong swimmers for the Seconds this year were MacLean, Gould ma., Nisbet, Thompson, Raymond, Lowry mi., Gould mi., Kavanagh mi., and Cooper.

In the Upper Canada College Cup competition for the best all-round swimmer at Ridley, Dorland was a decisive winner, placing first in six of the seven events.

Head Masters

As has been announced to all Old Boys, parents of boys now at Ridley and many parents of Old Boys, Ted Pilgrim will assume the position of Dean of Ridley and Executive Director of the Ridley College Foundation during the coming summer. His headquarters will be in Toronto, his home in Niagara-on-the-Lake and he will be travelling widely. His will be a position unique among independent schools. Ridley is fortunate, indeed, in having so forcible and eloquent a representative acting full-time on its behalf.

It has also been announced that Richard A. Bradley, M.A., presently Warden (Head Master) of St. Edward's School, Oxford, England, has been appointed the fifth Head Master of Ridley. He follows in illustrious footsteps — Dr. J. O. Miller, Dr. H. C. Griffith, Dr. J. R. Hamilton and Mr. Pilgrim.

Mr. Bradley is forty-six years of age. He has had wide experience in English public schools and, for one year, at the Gilman School in Baltimore, U.S.A. He received his education at Junior King's School, Canterbury, Marlborough College and Trinity College, Oxford. He was a master at Dulwich College and Tonbridge School before he became Head of St. Edward's in 1966.

In 1944-46 Mr. Bradley served with the Royal Marines in India and Java, as ranker and commissioned officer. He played rugby for the Oxford University Greyhounds R.F.C. and for the Blackheath R.F.C. and field-hockey for the Oxford Occasionals. He was a member of the Oxford University Mountaineering Club. He has edited school magazines and histories, produced school plays, founded a Motor Club and made a lecture-tour of the U.S.A.

We are fortunate that we shall be able to say to Mr. Pilgrim, "Be seeing you about." The School would sorely miss his stentorian support from the side-lines and his deep interest in all its affairs.

To Mr. Bradley, we say "Welcome!"
